and archaeological research towards a better understanding of their activities, territory and identity. This group of people is shrouded in the mists of the so-called "Dark Ages" and are only known to us by the chance survival of less than a handful of documents. Since the mid-20th century, valuable work has been done to identify former Anglo-Saxon estates in the Peak from the analysis of charters and from the Domesday survey, together with recent wider historical analysis. In addition, some have also attempted reconstructions of geographical territories from the Tribal Hidage, the document, which historical analysis can be added further

archaeological evidence which ranges from Anglo-Saxon barrow
investigation in the
limestone Peak District, to studies into the
geographical
distributions of free-
